

Caestecker Library patrons with a valid library card now can attend a performance at Thrasher Opera House in Green Lake. Each family may receive tickets for up to two (2) shows per season, with a maximum of four (4) tickets per selected performance date. Seasons run from January to May and June to December. Tickets may not be resold and have no cash value. Thrasher Opera House reserves the right to deny entry. Experience passes can be checked out at the library during the week of the show—no holds allowed.
